

A LITTLE BIT OF THUNDER

Joel Lindsey, Tony Wood, and Joseph Habedank

Can't you feel a storm is coming,
Can't you feel it rumbling now,
Any house not built on Jesus,
Surely gonna come tumbling down...

I ain't scared of a little bit of thunder
I ain't scared of what the headlines say
These dark days that we're living under
Shake me hard, but I won't lose faith
'Cause God is good, He is faithful,
And I am in His care, and I ain't scared
Ain't scared, ain't scared of a little bit of thunder

This is not my first rough season,
This is not my first mean storm
I have ridden out some troubles,
So I don't fear the weather no more

*So let it rage, let it pour
Let it crash all around me
Let it roar...*
