

NOW I KNOW HIM

Sue C. Smith, Tony Wood, and Joseph Habedank

I have known Him in the best of times
When every day was nothing but sunshine
And His blessings were my daily bread
It was true, I knew Him then and yet

Now I know Him
As my Shelter in the rain,
Yes, now I know Him
As my Shepherd through the pain
He is dear when life is easy
But in heartache, so much more
And now I know Him
Like I never have before

If my faith had not been tested by the flames
How could I have known these depths of grace
'Cause what is trust until it's proven true
When I see the valleys He has brought me through

Now I know Him as the Healer of my heart
Yes, now I know Him
The Hand the led me through the dark
He is dear when life is easy,
But in heartache, so much more
And now I know Him
Like I never have before
