

WONDERS WITH WATER

Sue C. Smith, Tony Wood, and Joseph Habedank

I've read He could walk on the water
He could turn it to wine
He tells the rain when and where to fall,
And holds back the tides

He's the God Who works
Wonders with water
It's crystal clear
He's the Galilee calmer
The Red Sea parter
In His hands miracles appear
So wait and see
The wonders He
Can do with your tears

He paints a rainbow to tell me
That I'm safe in the storm
And if I drink from the Fountain of Life,
I won't thirst anymore

*'Cause our tears cry out that we've come to the end of ourselves
We have no strength on our own and we need His help
That's a prayer He's glad to answer
There are great things that we find
When we bring to Him those heartaches
In the corners of our eyes...*
