

SAY THE NAME

Joseph Habedank, Michael Farren, and Tony Wood

From prison cells to desert places
Broken homes and hopeless cases
From every prayer on desperate knees
Time and time again, you'll see
What it can do
Oh, anytime that you

Say the name, the only name
That's ever calmed the waves
Say the name, the only name
That has the power to save
Say the name, the only name
By which the dead are raised
Oh, say the name
Just say the name of Jesus

From worried looks on doctors' faces
Empty cribs and faith that's shaken
When there's just no other word to speak
Time and time again, you'll see
What it can do
Oh, anytime that you

*It's hope and healing for the broken
It's strength and courage for the weak
It's life and freedom for the captive
There is no greater name that we could ever speak*
