

HERE HE COMES

Joseph Habedank, Chris Cron, Tony Wood

Here He comes, stepping down from Glory
Bethlehem is just the start of the story
Here He comes
Oh, here He comes

Here He comes teaching in the temple
Making timeless wisdom sound simple
Here He comes
Oh, here He comes

Here He comes to seek and save
To wash our every sin away
Hear the captives start to say, "Here He comes!"

Here He comes giving sight to a blind man
Calling out, giving life to a dead man
Here He comes
Oh, here He comes

Here He comes, Hosannas loudly ringing
Carries the cross along the way of suffering
Here He comes
Oh, here He comes

Here He comes to seek and save
To wash our every sin away
Hear the captives start to say, "Here He comes!"

Here He comes, a miracle at sunrise
An empty tomb is shouting, "He's alive!"
Here He comes
Oh, Here He comes

Here He comes, Oh glorious day!
He is risen from the grave
All creation shouts His praise
Here He comes

My heart beats with expectation
My soul aches with anticipation
Oh, what a moment of celebration
When we see Him in the sky

Here He comes, stepping down from Glory
Coming back to finish the story
Here He comes
Oh, here He comes

Here He comes
And I can't wait
For the dawning of that day
When the angels finally say, "Here He comes!"