

GOLIATH

Joseph Habedank, Daniel Doss, Sue C. Smith

They say I'm crazy for going out to this battle
They say I'm defenseless against the enemy
This hand-me-down armor doesn't suit me
I've got the only weapon I need
'Cause the giant here before me
Doesn't see the God behind me
If he did, he'd be on his knees

I come in the name of the One who's greater
Nobody can run His name into the ground
'Cause the rock that I've got is a mighty Savior
And before I swing that stone and sling around
I know my Goliath is coming down

There was a battle but I wasn't in it,
The lines were drawn on a hill called Calvary
Heaven sent the Rock of Ages to fight it for me
And death went down forever in defeat
There's no weapon formed against me
Stronger than the God who's with me
The cornerstone is my victory

*The fear that robs me
It's coming down
The doubt that shakes me
It's coming down
Bitterness and envy
They're coming down
The gates of hell will not prevail
'Cause they're coming down*
