

DEVIL CAN'T DANCE

Joseph Habedank and Jimmy Yeary

I'm sure he got excited when Adam fell from grace
And he must have leaped for joy when David lost his way
I can see him smiling as ol' Samson lost his strength
And when Peter three times said he never knew the Savior's name
He's been tripping up some good men
Since the beginning
But I've read the good book
And I know who ends up winning

His days are numbered
The Lord's gonna steal his thunder in the clouds
Yeah, and there's no doubt
With every tongue confessing
Every knee shall bow
And the devil can't dance if he's kneeling down
Devil can't dance if he's kneeling down

If it sometimes feels like he's always on your back
Pulling and tugging, trying to get your life off track
Seems like he won't give up, demons working overtime
And it's weighing on your spirit, messing with your mind
But there's a day coming
Won't be much longer
When the devil's finally done in
And his party's over

*You know he was dancing
As Jesus was dying on the cross
But just like back then
When the Savior rose again
He's gonna know he's lost*
