

THIEF IN THE NIGHT

Joseph Habedank, Jason Cox, Scott Inman

*Are you ready? Oh, are you ready?
Are you ready? Oh, are you ready?*

Don't know the hour, don't know the day
Don't know the moment when the clouds will break
But I can see Him, at the right hand
Jesus waiting to come back again

Our hearts are yearning
For His returning

The next time will be the last time
So keep your eyes
On the eastern sky, He's coming
One day, He'll call us away
He'll leave His throne to take home His bride
Just like a thief in the night

*Are you ready? Oh, are you ready?
Are you ready? Oh, are you ready?*

And so we're watching, and so we wait
Living like Jesus could come back today
Oh what a morning, when Heaven opens
And we finally see Him face to face

Our hearts are yearning
For His returning

*The first time He came as a man
The first time He came as a lamb
To live and die and rise up from a grave
The second time He'll come as a king
The second time He'll come to reign
And every knee will bow at His name*
