

SOMETIMES IT'S THE RADIO

Joseph Habedank, Jimmy Yeary, Tony Wood

Everybody has a bad day,
When they're feeling like no one cares
Everybody needs reminding
That Someone sees and Someone's there
Everybody gets a little down
And they need to be picked back up,
Sometimes by a preacher man,
Sometimes it's a real good friend

But sometimes it's the radio,
Sometimes it's a song of hope,
It's the right tune at the right time,
With the right words and the right rhyme,
With a melody
That takes you where you need to be,
Sometimes it's the word that you heard
At the church that soothes your soul,
But sometimes it's the radio

He cares about the smallest things,
When I'm driving down the open road,
It's almost like a symphony
That He plays for me
And all of Heaven knows
Everything I'm going through,
He knows what I need to hear,
Sometimes it's Amazing Grace,
Sometimes it's when the choir sings

*Sometimes it's a preacher man,
Sometimes it's a real good friend
Sometimes it's Amazing Grace,
Sometimes it's when the choir sings*
