

EVERYTHING BOWS

Joseph Habedank, Dave Clark, Tony Wood

Anybody here wish you could change
The yesterdays that you can't forget
Anybody here still feel the pain
Of a past filled with regret
Whatever your guilt says
Whatever your shame is
Well, I've got good news...

Everything bows,
Everything bows,
Everything bows,
At the name of Jesus
Everything bows,
Everything bows,
Everything bows,
At the name of Jesus

Anybody here feel like a slave
Wearing chains that you just can't break
Anybody here who'd give anything
To feel free for even a day
Whatever the stronghold
That's gripping your soul
You just gotta know...

*Every addiction,
Every temptation,
Every worry and fear
They all surrender,
To the God who's greater,
Than whatever we're facing here*
