

AIN'T THAT THE TRUTH

Lately, I've been listening to everything around me
All the voices trying to convince me
That I'll never be more than just the old me, old me
When the past comes calling again
I remind myself who I am

I'm a soul saved
A dead man raised
Dancing on holy ground
Cause a man on a tree named Jesus
Chased the devil right out of this town
I'm a bold believer
Weekday preacher
Changed and I can't deny
Ain't no lie, there's an empty grave full of living proof
Ain't that the truth

Hey, honestly, it's no exaggeration
I'm different, yeah I'm a new creation
And my name is written up in heaven, up in heaven
My shackles turned into rust
And it's all because of Your love

*If you believe it's true and you're here in this room
Let me hear you say amen (amen)
If you're done with the lies, you've been listening to
Let me hear you say amen (amen)
And if the Spirit of God is living in you
Let me hear you say, hear you say, hear you say...*
